“ Granny was a living example of God's love. She spent her life loving countless people regardless of fault or flaw, including myself. She was an amazing woman. A true example of grace, humility and love, she always had a hug for anyone and a plate of food. The world is less with her gone. I am blessed to have had her as my granny.

“Granny was the epitome of patience, humility and love. The world is less without her in it. She spent her life loving countless people without exception, including myself. I learned from her far to many things to list. To me she was the definition of grace, an example set by her life, her will to live regardless of fault or flaw. If ever a saint walked upon this earth she was one. She will be greatly missed.
