“Candy Hopson was one very special Lady, that was very dear to me. We have worked together, talked, Laughed, & cried together about our many problems that was in our lives. Candy was very special. She loved the Steven King Books. She always had one with her that she was reading. We spend a lot of time together working on the chicken farm, and she always knew how to put a smile on my face sometimes as I did hers. She loved her cats. Now she had a lot of cats at one time. She loved my old cat Snowball, a big white cat and he loved her too. She kept him for me for a while when I had to move away.

My memories of Candy are good ones. I have saw her down in the dumps, laughing, crying. We had a lot of good times together. She used to come stay at night time with me while Michael worked. We would talk about everything that life had thrown at us. There was a time that really means so much more to me. Candy stayed with me when my husband was so sick & died. She was so very special. Her & Michael both were. She had that comforting touch.

Candy got to making beautiful hand made wind chimes. She made them out of other peoples junk stuff and they were beautiful. I bought several from her. They were unusually. We would go look throught old bottles, parts from anything, and she would make something beautiful out of it. That's just how special a person Candy Hopson was. She had a twin sister that she talked about all time. I met her one time and them two together was a card. I love Candy Hopson so much and will forever hold her dear to my heart.

When I moved away, she beg me not too. But I had to move. I told her that we would stay in touch by phone and I would come back to see her one day. We stayed in touch for a while then all of a sudden her phone number didn't work no more. I tried & tried to make contact with her in several different ways but no way seem to work out. I called Michael and ask him to have her call me back, but that never happened. Why I don't know. Anyway, I am coming back to see my Candy Hopson with a Rose for her. Candy, I pray that you will rest in peace now and not be scare no more. I know that you will figure out away to make a beautiful wind chime out of the stars in heaven. I will watch the sky at night for you. I love & miss you special lady.
