“ When Chris was 4 years old he wanted to go to vacation Bible school. He called it Bacation Bible school. The church was just 2 blocks away but he wanted to ride the bus. The bus driver would pull up in my driveway and blow the horn and wait till I came out to open the door and let him off the bus. The first day I remember when he got off the bus he was so excited and as he come running up on the porch I noticed he had papers in his hand, some were word games and some that he had colored. We went in the house and I ask him Chris what did you learn in vacation Bible school today. So excited Chris said oh! Mama we learned all about this feller named Jesus Price. Jesus loaned him to me for almost 50 1/2 years and wanted him back now and I am trying to be at peace with that but I am broken. My son I will see you again when God is through with my work here. Love You, Your Mama that carried you next to my heart for 9 months. You are my heart!
