“ *Fannie Mae was a mother to me in my younger days. I was married to her nephew which she pretty much raised so he was more like a son to her and she welcomed me into her family and treated me like a daughter. I remember her playing her piano and singing her gospel songs I could sit and listen to her sing all day long. She would get up every morning and make a big breakfast for everybody I will always remember her breakfasts because she made the best spoon biscuits I ever ate. Fannie was a very special person and she will always have a special place in my heart Even though I didn't get to spend time with you in the later years of our life you was in my heart and thoughts and I will miss you dearly
