“ I loved Greg so much. He was a great pop! My husband and I think the world of pop and nonna . I always seen him doing things for his family and his grandchildren . He was thinking fun or work. Working on the farm with nonna doing what ever she wanted. And playing with the grandkids , doing whatever they wanted. He loved them all. He had the best laugh, and was always telling some stories about what the dogs had done or what the kids had done. Sometimes he would tell stories about what nonna had done if she wasn't listening. He will be missed .
Rest In Peace pop pop
love you
