“ Wanda was one of a kind. She was a sainted woman of the greatest faith. She was a true friend, not just part time, but a fulltime friend I could count on to be there anytime I needed someone to talk to. I will miss her greatly, the talks we had, the laughter we shared, the hugs and the many calls we shared. Not one time would we finish a phone call without ending it with "I love you".

I will never forget Wanda. True friendship is a rare thing and is hard to find, but I found it in Wanda Sterling, as did many other people who had the privilege of knowing this precious, precious lady. I love you, Wanda.
